WAVERLY, VA., May 11.—Miss Sally Burt, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Caroline county has returned home.Mrs. J. F. West and her little son, Daird, are on an extended visit to friends and relatives in Roanoke, Hollins, Va., and Ashboro, N. C. Mrs. West will return the latter part of the month.Mr. E. D. McClellan, of Marion, S. C., formerly of Virginia, visited friends in town several days last week.Miss Sally Fleetwood, who has been visiting the home of Mrs. F. V. Ellis of Norfolk, has returned home.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gray and Mrs.
Laura Vaughan, recently of Suffolk, arrived in town Tuesday; Miss Nell Gray arriving Wednesday. They will make their home in the future here, where they have recently bought property. The good people of Waverly extend to the party a hearty welcome.
Sussex Circuit Court has adjourned for the May term, having been in session only two days, owing to the fact that the criminal docket was much larger than usual.Miss Elsie West was at home a few days the past week on account of illness. She has now recovered and returned to the Woman's College, Richmond.Mrs. B. E. Cobb, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Chester and Blackstone, Va., has returned to Waverly.The last meeting of the Philomathan Club was with Mrs. J. F. May.
The program rendered was unusually short but good. Miss Annie Martin read a very interesting selection.
Although a few members were present, it was one of the happiest meetings of the club that the writer has ever had the pleasure of attending. Mrs. May served refreshments at the close of the rendering.Mr. P. Fleetwood, who has been confined to his room for the past week on account of sickness, is now out again.Mr. J. J. Faison was looking after the installing of the Sussex county exhibit at the exposition last Wednesday. Sussex county will soon have her exhibit in proper shape. When it shall have been completed, it is predicted that her exhibit will rank among the first of the counties of the State.Fayetteville.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 11.—
The Industrial Club, Mr. J. H. Anderson, president, which once a month under the freedom of its parlors to the wives and daughters of the members and other prominent women in Fayetteville society, entertained a large number of guests last evening with a musical "function" of rare merit. Mr.
J. F. Harrison introduced to the club Mrs. A. L. Kromfeldt, to whom was offered the understudy of the Impresario Caruso, which he could not accept without interrupting his vocal course.
From 9 to 11 o'clock, Mr. Kromfeldt charmed his audience with renditions perhaps the most exquisite tenor that Fayetteville music-lovers have ever heard.The following young matrons and ladies graced the parlors: Mesdames J. H. Anderson, H. Lutterloh, G. W.
Lake, W. T. Bowen, W. F. Blount, L.
W. Hughes, R. Dyer, J. M. D. Vance, H. McD. Robinson, R. H. McDuffie, W.
D. McNeill, J. C. Gorman, J. D. Wil-lams; Mesdames Matthews, Georgia Hicks, Rue Belle Nolley, Maud Hahn, Sue Steadman, Sallie McLean, Alice Hahn, Jean and Annie Pemberton, Helen Slocumb, Blanche Thornton, Mary N. Broadfoot, Robbie Hall.The May Festival, under the auspices of the Women's Civic Improvement Association, netted over $1,000 from its three days' entertainment.The great contest for the award of merit was between the Indian booth of Mrs. Herbert Lutterloh and the Japanese booth of Mrs. W. F. Blount, the former winning the handsome prize in gold offered.This Civic Association has set itself the work of making a more beautiful Fayetteville by the planting of trees, the making of grass and flower plots at the intersection of streets, the improvement of Beck's Park, and the renovation of the Old Market house, a historic building set on a plaza in the center of the city.Miss Virginia C. Phipps, head nurse of the Highsmith Hospital, is staying her home in Richmond, Va., and enjoying a few days of the Jamestown exposition.Special
